

Hello! I'm Yuma!

An Interactive Media Design student at eikon School of Applied Arts in Fribourg, Switzerland, with a university entrance qualification.

In my work, I love to create bold and extravagant projects that reflect who I am and how I see the world. I'm particularly passionate about graphic design, UI/UX design, and mixed media art, as well as other creative fields.

As a creative person, I aim to communicate my passion for art through original concepts and diverse techniques, always showcasing my perspective and skills.
